DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-8 and 10-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 1, no support can be found in the instant specification for the amendment made to claim1, line 11 “located spaced adjacent and spaced apart” – note that the closest support is paragraph [0055] which does not include the phrase, but a similar description of spacing using a buffer, although the concept of ‘adjacent’ while also apart is not supported; applicant must amend or cancel the amended subject matter or show specific support for the subject matter in the disclosure, for example, by directing the Examiner to page and line number within the specification.

In claim 8, line 25, encapsulation of “portions of” the substrate is not described in the instant specification; applicant must show support for the subject matter in question in the disclosure, for example, by directing the Examiner to page and line number in the specification.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-8, 10-16 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-16 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,616,880, and claims 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,287,503 (both already of record). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all set forth the method for encasing package arrays wherein a first and second substrate are provided within upper and lower mating mold plates, the substrates and mold plates are mated and plastic resin is injection molded to encase the assembly. Note that the claims of USP's 6,616,880 and 6,287,503 do not disclose encapsulating portions of the substrate, nor the substrates spaced adjacent and apart as newly claimed. The encapsulation of the electronic devices would also include portions of the substrate located under or at the electronic devices, and back to back orientation as claimed in the prior art does include spaced adjacent as claimed for molding equivalent alternative arrays, and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to perform the encapsulation methods as claimed, in view of the prior art for forming equivalent alternative array packages.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8, 10-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Note that applicant has overcome the 101 double patenting rejection made in the previous office action with the newly filed amendment. The new amendment has been rejected under 112 as described above, and a new ODP rejection has been made.

Note that a terminal disclaimer is insufficient for overcoming the 112 rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
